

Principal Richard Williams takes a walk around our Edinburgh campus

The Avenue in summer greens

ORIAM Professionals entrance

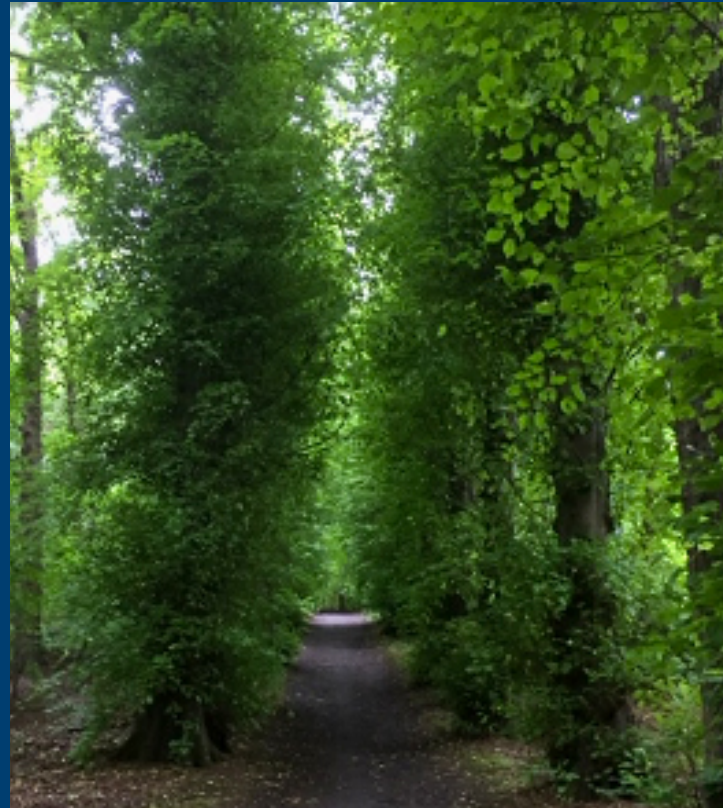

ORIAM

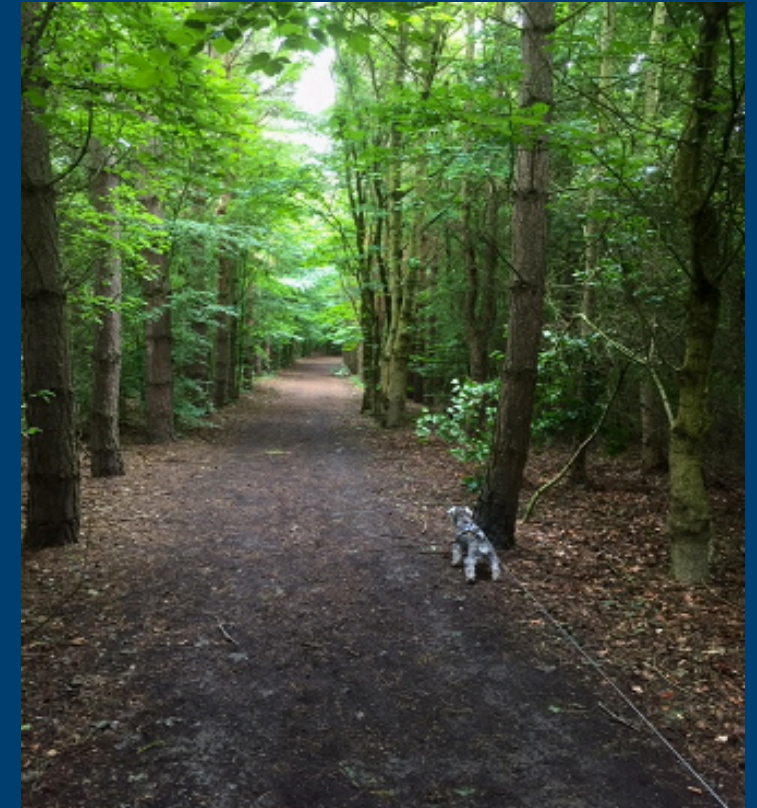

Principal Richard Williams takes a walk around our Edinburgh campus

West Woods

South Woods

North Woods

Principal Richard Williams takes a walk around our Edinburgh campus

One of our many exercise stations en route

The bars (for those who can!)

Instructions are provided!

Principal Richard Williams takes a walk around our Edinburgh campus

Looking to the Business School

Looking to Livingston

Bluebells have gone, but foxgloves abound

Principal Richard Williams takes a walk around our Edinburgh campus

West Gate Cottage

Glimpses of our Halls

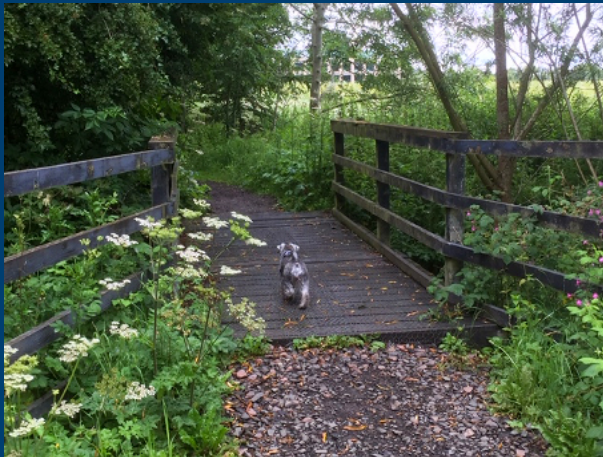

The Blood Transfusion Centre

Principal Richard Williams takes a walk around our Edinburgh campus

West Woods gate

Looking to Livingston

Jane and I call this The Swamp
(there was a family of ducklings born here this year)

Principal Richard Williams takes a walk around our Edinburgh campus

Hermiston Cottage at the North Gate

Cryogenic liquids (first patented/ made in 1875!)

Footpath to the Research Park

Principal Richard Williams takes a walk around our Edinburgh campus

The northern campus entrance

It's thistle season!

My favourite avenue of trees along Hermiston Walk